Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training:

Is required by law (Student Identifier Act) to collect, maintain and report to relevant Government agencies the individual's Unique Student Identifier (USI) number in accordance with the National VET Provider Collection Data Provision Requirements.

Will not disclose the Unique Student Identifier (USI) number for any other purpose, including on any Certification documents you receive.

Must not adopt the Unique Student Identifier (USI) number as its own identifier of the individual.

Integrity of Personal Information

Quality of personal information

Training will take steps, as are reasonable, to ensure that the personal information it:

- Collects is accurate, up to date and complete
- Uses or discloses, is, having regard to the purpose of the use or disclosure, accurate, up to date, complete and relevant

Security of Personal Information

Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training will take steps, as are reasonable in the circumstances to:

- Protect the information from misuse, interference and loss as well as unauthorised access, modification or disclosure
- Destroy the information or to ensure that the information is de-identified

Access to, and correction of, Personal Information

Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training provides all students with electronic access to their own personal records, where the individual can update and maintain their own personal information.

In some circumstances, Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training may not permit access to individuals for their personal information. If this is ever the case, Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training will provide full details for the legal reasons for this decision. These may include that Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training believes:

- That giving access to the information would pose a serious threat to the life, health or safety of the individual, or to public health or public safety; or

- Giving access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of other individuals; or
- The request for access is frivolous or vexatious; or
- The information relates to existing or anticipated legal proceedings between Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training and the individual, and would not be accessible by the process of discovery in those proceedings; or
- Giving access would reveal the intentions of Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training in relation to negotiations with the individual in such a way as to prejudice those negotiations; or
- Giving access would be unlawful; or
- Denying access is required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order; or

Both of the following apply:

- Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training has reason to suspect that unlawful activity, or misconduct of a serious nature, that relates to Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training functions or activities has been, is being or may be engaged in;
- Giving access would be likely to prejudice the taking of appropriate action in relation to the matters; or
- Giving access would be likely to prejudice one or more enforcement related activities conducted by, or on behalf of, an enforcement body; or
- Giving access would reveal evaluative information generated within Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training in connection with a commercially sensitive decision-making process.

When dealing with requests for access to personal information, Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training will:

- Respond to request for access within 30 days of the request, if from an individual, and within a reasonable time, if the request is from an organisation
- Provide access to the information in the manner requested, if it is reasonable and practicable to do so

Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training does not charge a fee for access to personal information. The exception is re-prints of certification documentation previously supplied.

With regard to the correction of personal information held:

- should Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training be satisfied that information is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading, Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training will take such steps as reasonable to correct the information to ensure that, having regard to the purpose for which it is held, the information is accurate, up-to-date, complete, relevant and not misleading

Should Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training refuse to correct information, Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training will give written notice to the individual that sets out:

- The reason for refusal
- The mechanisms available to complain about the refusal
- Any other matter prescribed by the regulations

Records Management

All personal information and records are maintained in accordance with Records Management Policy. (See Records Management Policy)

Monitoring and Improvement

All practices for Privacy are monitored by the Director Australian Healthcare Qualifications & Training and areas for improvement identified and acted upon. (See Continuous Improvement Policy)
